Tonight we get the first taste of F.A. Cup football at Saltergate this season with a visit from Wigan Athletic following the 2-2 draw at their ground last Saturday. We extend a welcome to Wigan, who are relative newcomers to the Football League, but who continue to consolidate under the management of Ian McNeill.

Credit goes to Wigan for their fight back against us at Springfield Park last Saturday after being 2-0 down after 15 minutes, but we should have put the game beyond their reach in the first 50 minutes.

Our last home match against Sheffield United produced the biggest attendance at our ground for several years. The game was exciting and entertaining and we won it through an extremely good goal.

I was pleased that we gained both points in another hard fought derby. Matches such as these are always competitive and you have to fight and work hard for everything.

We had a similar sort of game at Huddersfield on the following Saturday, but this time we came away with nothing. I thought we were at least worth a point as we were in charge of the game for long periods, but we failed to get the goals which would have given us a point or points.

Our Reserves had a fine 7-2 win at Scunthorpe last Tuesday through goals by Walwyn (3), Kowalski, Windridge, Hunter and Higgins (penalty).

On Saturday we go to Charlton for what will be a very important League match. We realise that this will be a very difficult fixture, but so is every game for that matter.

On the following Tuesday we will be in action against Bury at Gigg Lane in the first leg of the Anglo-Scottish Cup semi-final. We hope that all of you who can make it will go along to both these matches to give us your valuable support.

£5 A GOAL

The Chesterfield Supporters' Club are sponsoring the club to the tune of £5 per goal in League and Cup matches this season.

Up to and including the match with Huddersfield 51 goals had been scored making a grand total so far of £255.

OUR VISITORS

Wigan Athletic

We extend a warm Saltergate welcome to our opponents from Lancashire who come to us this evening as the youngest club in the Football League following their election, at the expense of Southport, in the summer of 1978.

It may be reasonable, therefore, to expect that this is our first-ever meeting at Saltergate but Wigan in fact came here for a pre-season friendly in August 1974 (which Wigan won 1-0) just a few days after former Wigan manager Gordon Milne had been here with his Coventry City team for another friendly match.

Being elected to the Football League was all that Wigan deserved, for only once in the previous ten seasons had they failed to finish in the top three of the Northern Premier League. Their Springfield Park ground could boast good facilities, the ability to accommodate 30,000 and the whole of the nine acre site the property of the Club.

The town population of 89,000, with a radius zone of five miles from the town centre, could be boosted by a further catchment area of over 200,000. The Club also had a healthy bank account and a productive Development Association.

The annual meeting of the Football League in June 1978 had little option, then, but to give Wigan their chance, all of 40 years after their first application incidentally. The opportunity was taken with both hands and the record books show how the Lancashire club lost no time in making an impression.

Their first season in League football, 1978/79, saw them finish a most creditable sixth in Division Four with a home average attendance of 6,701, while last season they again finished sixth with another good average home gate of 5,905.

This season, however, they are finding life rather more difficult and are currently lying in 20th position. Eleven home League games have brought a good return of seven wins and two draws, but away form has been rather poor to date with eight defeats from ten visits to opponents' grounds.

Friday, 2nd June 1978, is a very important date in the history of Wigan Athletic. On that date at the Annual General Meeting of the Football League, the Latics tied with 26 votes with Southport, but in the second ballot, Athletic triumphed 29-20. Wigan were in the League, elected at their 35th attempt!

Wigan Athletic was founded in 1932 by a consortium of 11 local businessmen. This followed the resignation from the League of Wigan Borough who consequently folded. Athletic took over Borough's Springfield Park Ground, and they have remained there ever since. Athletic in their forty-odd year stay in non-league football were one of the most successful teams, both on the field and in terms of support, outside the League; ten League Championships (4 Lancashire Combination, 4 Cheshire League and 2 Northern Premier League) is testimony to the on-field success.

In fact in 10 years of Northern Premier League football, Wigan finished in the top 3 eight times, and large crowds, including one of 13,871 v Sheffield Wednesday in the F.A. Cup in 1977 and a 27,500 crowd v Hereford in 1953 show how well the Latics are supported considering the large amount of other Lancashire clubs, the town's relatively low population of around 90,000, and of course the fact that Wigan Rugby League Club have been very successful over at neighbouring Central Park.

Wigan were almost elected to the League in 1971, a year after Cambridge had replaced Bradford Park Avenue, but many chairmen saw their expensive public relations exercise, including giving every League Club a small gift, as more of a bribe, so they lost many probable votes and failed to be elected, and the following season Hereford piped them in the election to replace Barrow.

One thing the Latics have achieved that has eluded most of their League colleagues is to play in a Wembley Cup Final. In 1973 they reached the F.A. Trophy Final, but lost 2-1 to Scarborough in front of a 23,000 crowd.

Last season Wigan achieved their best ever result, a 1-0 third round F.A. Cup win over Chelsea, Tommy Gore scoring the goal which stunned the 22,300 in attendance at Stamford Bridge. In the 4th round they lost 3-0 at Everton.

SALTERGATE SCENE

by Reg Whittaker

We have now almost got to the halfway stage of the Third Division programme and although there has been one or two disappointments, Chesterfield have done very well indeed so far.

It has been quite obvious that every team which the Blues have played have been extra determined to try and get them down while at the same time showing them the respect they deserve.

When a team gets to the top of the table so early in the season the pressures become even greater, but Frank Barlow and his players are coming through the task extremely well.

There has been no slacking off since the departure of Arthur Cox, indeed the determination to succeed has if anything become more intense.

It has occurred to me on occasions that one or two players have been trying a little too hard to please and as a result their play has suffered. No doubt manager Barlow, who is settling down well in the managerial chair (when he can be persuaded to sit down), has brought them to task when the need has arisen.

Victory over Sheffield United in the last home game was well deserved, although the underfoot conditions due to incessant rain, did not enable the game to reach the heights which were expected.

Phil Bonnyman's winner was his fifth in five matches and a really good one it was too. Incidentally one of Phil's most ardent fans is his sister

Carol, who lives in the London area and never misses a chance to see him play when the fixture is in or around London.

I suppose she will be cheering him on at Charlton next Saturday. This will indeed be a match which should not be missed.

Charlton, who were relegated at the end of the season are currently leading the Third Division, three points better off than the Blues and so if you can get along to The Valley by all means do so and help cheer the Blues to victory.

Saturday week Millwall will be here and although they are in the bottom rungs of the table they should help provide good entertainment.

How to get there

Charlton: Take M1 to London and then follow signs to City and then Tilbury. Go through Blackwall Tunnel and then take A102M for one mile. Branch left and then turn left at T-junction into A206. In half a mile turn right into Charlton Church Lane and then left into Floyd Road.
